

ANNOUNCEMENT: VIRTUAL CARE / TELE REHAB HEALTH SERVICES

FROM: NL BALANCE & DIZZINESS CENTRE

NL Balance & Dizziness Centre is a multi-disciplinary health and medical clinic that offers virtual health care, or Tele-Rehabilitation, for the following services:

- Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy
- Psychology/Counselling, Speech Therapy

Neurologist, Dr. Kyna Squarey, also works out of NL Balance & Dizziness Centre. Dr. Squarey will continue to offer direct and virtual care for her current patients. New referrals are being accepted and waitlisted.

Our clinic has been providing TeleRehab services since we opened in 2016. We use the most secure platform to deliver this service and follow appropriate Tele-rehab Standards of Practice provided by our governing bodies.

Effective February 15th, 2021 NL Balance & Dizziness Centre will pivot to offering virtual care to patients during Covid-19 Alert Level 5. Urgent in-clinic care is also available for patients that meet the guidelines of emergency services.

Our services are critical for managing cases that otherwise could end up in emergency rooms, worsening an already difficult situation.

Our reception staff is available during office hours to take calls and book Virtual or Tele-rehab appointments. New referrals are welcomed.
